

MODERN SLAVERY/HUMAN TRAFFICKING POLICY

Policy

Ark Build Plc is committed to driving out acts of modern day slavery and human trafficking within its business and that from within its supply chains, including sub-contractors. The company will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved in slavery or human trafficking.

The Company acknowledges responsibility to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to the organisation.

As part of the company's due diligence processes into slavery and human trafficking the supplier approval process will incorporate a review of the controls undertaken by the supplier. The level of management control required for these sources will be continually monitored. The company will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved in slavery or human trafficking.

The company Directors and senior management shall take responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives and shall provide adequate resources (training, etc) and investment to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the organisation and within its supply chains.

Training

We regularly train relevant employees in ethical business policies, incorporating: corporate social responsibility, the UK Bribery Act, whistleblowing policies and procedures and modern slavery awareness.

A full copy of this policy and a copy of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 will be accessible to all employees electronically and can be obtained upon request.

Review

This policy statement will be reviewed annually and published.
